

1,000 LIVES ARE LOST AS TYPHOON SWEEPS HANKOW

Hundreds of River Craft
Wrecked—1,000 Men Perish
in Chinese Mine Disaster.

VICTORIA, May 28.—The steamer Shinono, of the Japanese line, brings news of another disaster through a typhoon at Hankow, following a freshet which involved the loss of more than 1,000 lives, with the wrecking of 1,000 junks and the stranding of many steamers, including several foreign craft.

The typhoon came suddenly and in a few hours reduced hundreds of boats in the Kan River to splinters. Steamers broke away from their moorings and only those which could get up steam quickly escaped.

The shores were thick with corpses of river people. Hundreds were recovered before the steamer left Shanghai.

News was also brought of a great coal mining disaster in Kwang Si, where 1,000 lives were lost when the mine took fire.

"TOM" CUNNINGHAM, EX-SENATOR, DEAD.

SARATOGA, N. Y., May 28.—Ex-State Senator Thomas F. Cunningham, of New York City, died at his summer home here yesterday. He had been ill six weeks with asthma. He was sixty-two years of age.

TRIES TO KILL BROTHER WHO ARRESTED HIM

Arthur O'Connor Fires Three Times at Policeman O'Connor at Bath Beach.

Policeman John J. O'Connor, of the Bath Beach station, was trying his best to-day to find his brother, Arthur O'Connor, to arrest him on a serious charge, when Arthur was caught by Policeman Dowling and looked up.

Policeman O'Connor noticed his brother Arthur, twenty-five years old, with a disorderly crowd on a corner in Bath Beach last night and gave him warning.

"If you are still here when I come back in five minutes," he said kindly, "I'll have to lock you up, Arthur, although you are my brother."

Arthur indicated that he was one of those Missouri persons, so when Policeman O'Connor came back in five minutes and found him still there, he "showed him." A large crowd saw brother arrest brother and start to the station.

By this time Arthur decided it was no joke, and started to run. His brother called him to stop, and was making good headway in the pursuit when Arthur turned at Bay Twenty-first street and Bath avenue and fired three shots from a revolver. All missed, but the fugitive escaped.

Policeman O'Connor reported at his station the escape of Arthur O'Connor after firing three shots at an officer of the law, and since then the search has been continuous.
